

Reese Moore Photography

Jake Holwegner Bassist, Band Leader

843-813-6562 www.jakeholwegner.com

Jake is, by far, one of the best bass players in Charleston. – Art Magazine

Bio: Jake specializes in a range of genres, from classic jazz to salsa, gypsy swing to Bulgarian galduka, bluegrass to rock n' roll. He has studied in America and Cuba, learning from and playing with the best, including Quentin Baxter, Taras Koval, Joe Beck, Tommy Gill, John Ellis, Frank Duvall, Stephane Wrembel, Gino Castillo and Angel Gadev.

Jake has performed all over the United States, in the Caribbean, Western Europe and Cuba.

Configurations Available:

Jazz: duo, trio, quartet

Latin Jazz (quartet through septet)

Salsa quartet

Gypsy Jazz trio

Bluegrass trio, quartet

Brazilian Jazz duo, trio, quartet

Rock/Funk trio through septet

Blues Trio

music clips available

Reese Moore Photography

Reese Moore Photography

Studio recordings, festivals, accolades:

JAC member, multiple nominations for "Best Bassist in Charleston"

Studio recordings: "A Night in Samois", "Dunzip", Lee Barbour's "Nonfiction", Gino Castillo's "SoulFunkCubanized"

Festivals: Piccolo Spoleto, Mojo art festivals (SC) and Jazz in the Park (GA), Washington Park (NC)

Not only is Jake a great player, but he brings a wonderfully positive attitude and spirit to his work – Brad Moranz, Producer

Pricing:

Standard $100/person/hour

Wedding, event and combination pricing available

Travel options available

Taylor Stewart Photography

843.813.6562

info@jakeholwegner.com

www.jakeholwegner.com